DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicants' amendment filed on February 17, 2006 was received. Claims 1-40 are deleted. Claims 41-47 are amended.

Examiner's Amendment

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

3. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. William G. Conger on March 1, 2006.

The application has been amended as follows:

In Claim 41 (line 1), after "transparent", insert -- and colorless --.

In Claim 41 (line 2), delete "and free of observable colloidal catalyst residues".

In Claim 43 (line 2), replace "fumed" with -- pyrogenic --.

Art Unit: 1712

4. Claim rejection(s) under 35 USC 103 in the previous Office Action (Paper No. 111205) is/are removed.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 41-47 are allowed.

6. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The present claims are allowable for at least the following reason(s) over the closest references: Miyoshi (EP 1 043 363), Ebbrecht (US 5 552 506) and Hompanera (US6 197 359).

Miyoshi discloses a silicone rubber mold obtained by curing an addition curable composition in the presence of a rhodium catalyst. The composition comprises alkenyl-containing polyorganosiloxane and hydrido-containing polyorganosiloxane. The alkenyl group can be a vinyl group. ([0002], [0010]-[0015] and [0017]-[0023]) However, Miyoshi does not teach or fairly suggest the specific catalysts set forth in the instant claims. Especially, Applicants show the unexpected results by using these catalysts vs. the platinum catalyst in the specification (page 3, lines 5-11). The composition cured by the claimed catalysts has longer shelf life and the cured product shows no discoloration. The aforementioned unexpected results are further demonstrated in Examples. For example, the silicone composition cured by using rhodium(II) octanonate (Example 4) has longer shelf life, and the cured product is colorless, when compared with the composition of Comparative Example 3.

Ebbrecht discloses the use of rhodium catalysts (e.g., $(\text{RhCl}(\text{cyclooctadiene})_2)$ (col. 6, lines 2-5) in a hydrosilylation reaction between a hydrogen polysiloxane represented by the formula described in col. 6, lines 23-36 and an organic acrylate (containing an unsaturated group)(col. 6, line 61 to col. 7, line 57). However, Ebbrecht does not teach or fairly suggest the polydiorganosiloxane having at least one unsaturated group set forth in the present invention.

Hompanera discloses a baking mold prepared by polyaddition reaction of a methyl-vinyl-polyorganosiloxane and hydrido containing polyorganosiloxane. The baking mold can be confectionery molds or other receptacles in general. (col. 1, lines 61-67, col.2, line 65 to col. 3, line 7 and col. 3, lines 34-50) However, Hompanera does not teach or fairly suggest the specific catalysts set forth in the instant claims. Especially, Applicants show the unexpected results, supra.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
